THE CHINESE MAIL.

報日字
(Wah Tai Yat Po)

THIS paper is now issued every day.
The subscription is fixed at Five Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Eleven Dollars Forty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction.
The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projector, basing their estimate upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Po-nan, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and non-destructive in tone—is almost limitless. It is on the one hand commanded Chinese belief and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials with Local Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription orders for the above may be sent to
